

Excess and/or umbrella liability

Global Marine

Who buys this insurance?

A purchaser of primary liability policies who requires additional layers/limits of coverage.

This is a key coverage for Assureds wishing to purchase protection against major losses.

An umbrella policy will sit above a number of scheduled underlying primary coverages and can include; commercial general liability, public liability, protection and indemnity including pollution liability, automobile liability, employers liability, professional indemnity, as well as excess liability coverage for other specific marine operations.

This type of policy serves several purposes, not only providing increased limits of coverage, but also dropping down where underlying policy aggregates may be eroded or exhausted.

Cover

As per applicable underlying policy coverages.

Limits

Up to USD 1 billion any one accident or occurrence.

Claims

Our highly specialised, integrated team understand the importance of effective claims management and advocacy, particularly on complex and long-term liability claims.

“We believe our team is perfectly positioned to provide a tailored and optimised solution for you”

Ben Abraham, Head of Global Marine
